

Assuming the Existence of a Divine Mother

Many wonder how it was possible for these soulless conditions and unkind goings-on on Earth to come about. And again and again, with great insecurity, the question is raised: Is this ordained by God? Or why does God not step in? After all, He is bound to see all the unfairness that is happening here. And after a stroke of fate in private: Why have we deserved this? Is this a punishment for sins committed? For disobedience expressed? But we have always prayed, haven't we? Does living mean, for many, only outlive the next moment? Countless prayers—since the first entreatingly begged-for help—have been sent to the heavens—yet, still, this state of things... advancing disintegration and decline of the gifts of God to us...

The workings of those at the top! Their well-prepared and successful, free and flexible play with guilt has sent its ripples far about and has fuelled great insecurity drawing on fear, horror, and the last judgement! (Guilt: a verdict directed at oneself instilled by acquired behaviours, adopted ideals, allurements, threats of evil, etc. ... as to how one must or should be, even when the inner voice, the feeling signals something entirely different!) After hundreds of years, as good as all humans have been affected more or less seriously by it. However, there is one comforting insight: even though all humans are different (and differently affected!)—and carry within them totally different proportions of good and evil—, there still is the one facet that unites them—and keeps them: Love! It is the bonding and supporting element! And just in these trying times of ours, the Divine Mother, presumed dead, would be the longed-for (last?!) hope—and salvation. For only She, because of her magnetic qualities, can change the state of things, and She can draw on her nature of sentient energy to restore right away some of the long-missed original trust in the frightened ones, and She, together with God, can stop the diktat of standardisation and enslavement of humankind! Her presence, luckily, can be felt already; however, can by those as well who wanted to destroy Her forever.

This explains the increasing and sometimes totally confused activism by the decision makers. Even more intimidation, even more unsettling, even more pressure and foreboding with paralysis or torpidity as the objective... Therefore, it is all the more important to resume addressing the people of Love mutually so they unite with one another in standing up to the all-oppressing and manipulating forces and, rather, withhold from them every individual's creative energy they occupy or withdraw it from them; where this approach would be a logical and inherently compelling consequence under the principle of cause and effect. United thenceforth—and in an alliance with the external, divine energy simultaneously encompassing and supporting all levels—the long overdue, all-inclusive change in the name of Love could be brought about! For cradled and united by this kind of security and certainty, any lie and defamation, however devious, can be recognised for what it is; just as some already exercise it on social media.

The Divine Mother

Unique feature

The beginning of a reformation in humankind's history! To everybody's great hope, the radical concealment of the Divine Mother hitherto is gradually becoming a thing of the past, and She will again take Her rightful place next to God in the future! God and the Divine Mother are the origin of Creation. Let there be one more general opinion: Neither the existence of a Divine Mother can be proved nor the existence of God as such! But the converse argument, too, fails to prove that They (Both!) do not exist!

This Mother is the mistress of the emotional polarity! And by the rulers, She was denounced, discredited, and ultimately accused for all the evil in the world—and, as things moved on, downright enslaved and pushed behind the curtain, up to where to the present day as good as nothing remained of her and stays/has stayed. This has led, as a result, to a fatally unbalanced relationship of both polarities and, in turn and beyond that, to it being close to impossible for many humans who observed/observe the happenings in society and in world politics for orientation, to find—just because of this skewed vision—a different (more truthful?!) perspective and interpretation! An aggravating addition were all sorts of varying, confusing blandishments.

What does the phoenix see before it rises from the ashes? Disintegration and suffering—with a feeling of overwhelming yearning and hope! Subsequent to the loss of old of this Mother, part of humankind has been weakened to the greatest extent or even harmed to this day; in many of those affected, the event has left a terrible trauma deep inside. To this day, it expresses as a painful wound that never healed and as a loss beyond recovery, and any vague hope, since then, has touched again and again on a sore melancholy!

For this reason alone, it would be so ineffably important to bring the presence of the Divine Mother closer to those very humans! On the one hand, this approach could counteract the draining of the individual's energy (coerced self-denial) caused by the constant manipulation by an alluring, all-suppressing ideal from the establishment that be! On the other hand, it would amount to a small cosmic dimension when the hearts that subsequently would unclench would, by God and Goddess, be, as it were, accepted, touched, and comforted—and assisted by Them in the future!

Yet important is it to note: These in power do not possess any own energy by which they would be capable of disposing of or ruling over the others! They live exclusively off “alien” energy denied by other humans—like vampires—who on top of everything else portray themselves as standing taller than they are with every intimidation, however brash. And yet all this is only hollow veneer—without any substance! Like backdrops for the movie or theatre scenes, with colourful rags and masks from the props storage!

Before Returning

Early Humiliation and Signs of Pushing Aside Emphatically

* Gen 2, 22

Then the LORD God made a woman from the part he had taken out of the man, and he brought her to the man.

“The text states that the LORD God built the rib—the Hebrew word actually means ‘side’—into a woman. In Hebrew, ‘man’ or ‘human’ is the meaning of the word ‘Adam’ and with or without article, it is used both as a noun for the kind and as a proper name for a person.”

Gen 3, 12

The man said, “The woman whom you gave me, she gave me from the tree and I ate.”

Gen 3, 16

To the woman he said, “I will greatly increase your labour pains; with pain you will give birth to children. You will want to control your husband, but he will dominate you.”

Lev 12, 2

Tell the Israelites, “When a woman produces offspring and bears a male child, she will be unclean seven days, as she is unclean during the days of her period.” *

(* see end note on quotations from the Bible)

Impurity in Women

* Lev 15, 19

When a woman has her flow of blood from her body, she is to be in her unclean period seven days, and anyone who touches her will be unclean until evening.

Lev 15, 25

When a woman’s discharge of blood flows many days, not at the time of her period, or if it flows beyond the time of her period, all the days of her discharge of impurity will be like the days of her period—she is unclean.

Lev 15, 30

And the priest is to make one a sin offering and the other a burnt offering. So the priest is to make atonement for her before the LORD from her discharge of impurity.

Lev 18, 19

You must not approach a woman in her menstrual period to have sexual relations with her in her impurity.

Lev 20, 18

If a man goes to bed with a woman in her menstrual period and thus has laid bare her fountain of blood, and she has exposed the fountain of her blood, so both of them must be cut off from the midst of their people.

Lev 22, 12

If a priest's daughter marries a lay person, she may not eat of the holy offerings. *

(* see end note on quotations from the Bible)

More Laws Concerning Marriage

* Deu 24, 1

If a man marries a woman and she does not please him because he has found something indecent in her, then he may draw up a divorce document, give it to her, and evict her from his house.

Deu 24, 2

When she has left his house and she goes and becomes someone else's wife and if the second husband rejects her and then divorces her, gives her the papers, and evicts her from his house, or if the second husband who married her dies, then her first husband who divorced her is not permitted to remarry her after she has become ritually impure, for that is offensive to the LORD. You must not bring guilt on the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

Deu 24, 3

Deu 24, 4

Pro 11, 22

Like a gold ring in a pig's snout is a beautiful woman who rejects discretion.

Sir 25, 31

A woman who won't make her husband happy is like hands that hang down, and weak knees.

Sir 25, 32

The beginning of sin came from a woman. Because of her, we all die.

1Co 11, 7

For a man should not have his head covered, since he is the image and glory of God. But the woman is the glory of the man.

1Co 11, 8

For man did not come from woman, but woman from man.

1Co 11, 9

Neither was man created for the sake of woman, but woman for man.

1Ti 2, 11

A woman must learn quietly with all submissiveness.

1Ti 2, 12

But I do not allow a woman to teach or exercise authority over a man. She must remain quiet.

Tit 2, 4 - 5

They will train the younger women to love their husbands, to love their children, to be self-controlled, pure, fulfilling their duties at home, kind, being subject to their own husbands, so that the word of God may not be discredited.

Rev 14, 4

These are the ones who have not defiled themselves with women, for they are virgins. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These were redeemed from humanity as firstfruits to God and to the Lamb *

(* see end note on quotations from the Bible)

The Divine Mother

Presence and Absence

Oppressed humans, unbelievable hardship—and the Earth drowning in unthinkable uncharitableness. What an inverted, even perverted life, what an incomprehensible existence: one total negation of Love with no comforting encouragement at all. God is far, His opponent(s) force and flay anyone and anything that lives and loves, and sheer bewilderment prevails at so many hostile attitudes, actions, conflicts come about from interests, and open disputes. In strident tones and power-driven, militant slogans or martial subjugation, the Earth keeps floating towards even sadder misery. When the light of salvation continues to be pushed yet further aside by the dangerous greed and the deluge of self-staging presentations and when dread grows relentlessly by wilful ignorance, importance, ambition, and war, then disbelieving fright gets more and more pervasive. And yet this: “God saw all that he had made—and it was very good!” (Genesis 1, 31) But today: Has this ever been good? Or, has that ever been truthful? One thing, though, has remained to this day: It is the winner who writes history!

This was in the beginning: What vibrates, pulses or roars deep within the soul, bears the Mother’s features and overcomes death. This is how it erstwhile was. Yet today this yearning, this being-unfulfilled looks for this late maternal feeling only in fellow humans, since the Mother has been nowhere to be found. Even so, many still hope, even after so many attempts to no avail, to be touched by Her. However, where can this Mother be found for whom so many long in vain? Firstly, one’s own mind or reason, together with one’s heart, should open up a little to the whistleblowing feeling and assume—even-mindedly—the prospect of her existence, in order to be in touch again with the One presumed missing—and, as things move on, possibly, to build a relationship again with Her. And: Expectantly, the Mother looks out, Her eyes in prayer, to those who hopefully will choose Her at the very last moment, so Judgement Day for the ones concerned will be a liberating one—rather than the very last one. This predication is meant to give centre-stage to hope—rather than judgement!

Pushed Aside for Dead and Defamed to This Day

Once cast away, thenceforth unacknowledged, and subsequently avoided to the extreme, as though a highly virulent disease, this Lost One was the former Divine Mistress, who, by all the denunciations and actions carried out against Her, had continuously sunk to being a mere Alien One... and whose traces subsequently were lost some time some place, even attributing into the bargain many of Her character traits to a dark side or even a dark charm. Dark, for the one reason that her behaviour could never be comprehended for what it was. Independently of what contribution she might have been able to bring, she was unwanted. For she was different, had different (non-conforming!) character traits, did not view the world and life in terms of the ruling, male, analytical logic, viewed everything with an intuitive (over time, more and more, contrasting!) "truth" as a "complement" or answer to the polarity of the mind; still, the mind side could not understand or accept this, in particular because it lacked experience of one's own vision not being affirmed; it preferred following its own views undisturbed. As a case in point, let the ending Dark Middle Ages and their gruesome powers be noted—and the massive blocking and fighting women by the Catholic Church (burning of witches at the stake)!

With few exceptions, most women for long periods of time were a dominated, featureless, and only living-along blank mass that was allowed only one thing: to be/become a man's property and engage in obedience! A very interesting, matching description of this abject state of things, particularly in part of the lower classes of society, can be found in the book "Revolutionary Spring" by historian Christopher Clark! A telling example of how focusing to the extreme on a (mind-logic technocratic!) perspective means neglecting the emotional polarity to an equally extreme extent; and at the same time the parts bonding with this one turned, by this cause, into eternal losers—to this day. Conclusion: The state of things that can be seen today would never be there in the presence or with the active participation of the Divine Mother!

Something one cannot explain has been suspicious to this day. In the view of the ruling circles, She was considered unpredictable and dissenting too frequently and, above all, a nuisance to their attitude and actions, in particular when, for important decisions, the emotional facet advocated a totally contrary position—and was then disregarded repeatedly. Well, and when fear and unaccountability have grown to a sufficient extent, a caring being is easily turned into a demon. In these circumstances, the Mother lived, and since that time those who bond with Her miss Her... Frequently, humans in whom the parts of the Mother are predominant manage rather for worse than for better to go through life only with effort; worse still, are meant to turn themselves into that which the rulers demand, which, however, is simply not possibly because of their nature. Suffering from this wound that will not heal, these humans feel home-, anchor-, and defenceless, at the mercy of existence. And with all that, they are kept to this day, by constant manipulation and opinion making, in a state of great self-doubt, and by skilled canvassing—that resembles a kind of re-education!—using idealised role models, they are enticed, confused, and sent into a self-doubt that downright flouts the heavens in the face!

Through all times, almost the entire mind-isolated, ruling, and oppressing elite of power has taken up position solely and only against this Mother and against all those who feel they bond with this nature. (This alone made it possible for the Mother's opponents to mislead the once powerful "simple" portion of humankind—and keep them under their control as the soon-to-be losers.) This suppression begun early can be seen on Earth today in widely varying, complex configurations! Humans who bond with the Mother polarity fight for peace and freedom, against oppression and exploitation, against pollution on the Earth, etc., and against unfairness! Thus, they live, as a divine impulse, their answer to the consequences for society of the exploitation of humans and the Earth—and to the far too often incomprehensible political decisions in which they are simply disregarded. Out of this, life always demands a great deal of these Mother beings. Until today, life has been, and is, a plight for them or even a self-contained calamity! Well, like deep, earthy, fertile soil—and on it a fight for survival in constant confrontation, rejection or bullying by the higher echelons of the State diktat. For a better understanding: These humans by their nature mostly belong to the colourful and intuitive circles, those with a rather spontaneous way of life.

At the end of the day, for many the loss of the Mother also meant the loss of the feeling of security—like children who never get over the death of a parent (as, by the way, God as well is said to be dead for some today), and for more than a few the wound will stay until their own passing. The mourning in particular, that which should be said, which one would like to hear oneself, or simply the comforting voice just one more time... keeps going on and on. Reality in its entirety always feels for these humans a little unfair, pointless or, at best, just unreal, even when one has learnt at some point to live and survive with the loss.

Embodiment of Sin

This is where the best part of the attention is focused on objecting to previous lies and unspeakable discriminations—and, above all, on making it clear what to this day the manipulated condemnation carried out in the beginning (also using guilt!) has wreaked in the heads and hearts of humans! By the conditioning throughout the ages, the Mother does no longer exist for most of them, and has not for a long time, or She rather appears as though a yellowing and almost unreadable sheet of paper in an age-old letter. Those who bond with Her have never been able since the loss to resign themselves to this, for again and again they have encountered feelings that were touched by Her: Her image on the golden mirror of the hearts, watched over as the dearest asset of Creation! And no disappointment, however great, no sorrow and no humiliation has managed to completely silence the tongues of these truthful believers in the heart—with the exception of some, mostly withdrawn or already totally broken ones—, not even by way of the ever subsiding consciousness caused by the oppressing persuasion carried out persistently by the opposing side, the self-proclaimed decoders of God. For it is them who will do everything to continue to be worshipped! No matter what the cost for Love and humans!

And as if this weren't enough, the Mother's absence was nourished on top of that by the evil, slanderous assertion that there was only God. What a derision! The frequently repeated thesis and delusion of a long-disconnected, flickering mind. And the Mother could only watch suchlike stunned. However could it have come to this? Well, and how can the divine principle be other among humans than with God Himself? Were it different, it would also be different among humans. For where does the entire female-emotional (magnetic!) polarity in Creation come from? From the side or rib, or what? And to all interpreters of Creation and supporters of considering God to be a female being: Doesn't anything catch your eye? And what is the part of Lucifer, the best toxic spoiler of Creation? And along with him also the fallen angels, the spawn of traitors who, fully competitive with this dark figure, embody the ruthless power in the State of Earth? Whatever, of most of these fundamental believers compacted to asphyxiation, this perspective will elicit just a deriding shake of the head or a few reflexes of fury zipping through them! This one question, still: If God allegedly created the Adam without a woman, why then did he require for his son (Jesus!) a mother, Mary?

Grave Consequences

Abyssal was the original loss of this Goddess. A defeat beyond hope for life. The consequences along this loss of Love have led to an unparalleled unbalance and downfall in Creation, to the point where it impairs the whole of Creation. Not one single person has ever unwittingly contributed to such a far-reaching and fateful alteration of Creation (possibly excepting Jesus!); and while this was not intended once, all humans have been directly affected by it to this day. For the parts from the Mother live in everybody. This dramatic development does not only extend into our present time, but also into the most private areas of human togetherness, where they are confronted and pressured by all manner of unkindness. In most relationships, too, these consequences happen at some point, the more one ends up in the full depth of being together. And if it is not recognised for what it is, there is danger of a succession of charged conflicts getting constantly hastier –having the potential to destroy everything bonding. Along with all this, today's Herculean task consists in correcting the enormous consequences again, such as illness, mental disorders or ailments of the body, that is, in healing them and rebalancing them by extensive measures of healing.

Jesus

Come to an end some two thousand years ago, He could resume His work today and act true to His divine parents by making things clear for humans and encouraging to abandon old and outdated convictions and to return towards the Mother of Creation. And the times when the separation of old left many beings bonding with the Mother facet lost and alone, for whom the entire meaning of their lives, as it were, went dark—and who subsequently, their hearts torn apart, remained frightened children—, those times would then be a thing of the past. Today again, Jesus would once more contribute with all His might and power to the light of Love touching anew, after the former indescribable, heartbroken, and traumatic hurting, the hearts beginning to stir of the sorely afflicted ones... and to the feeling of happiness and security, present today, if at all, only lost in the depths and withdrawn, gently opening up once again.

Inconceivable, even unthinkable—and words almost fail one: These gloomy original stories of rib or side, of serpent, and of virgin birth suggest an outrageously malicious campaign for annihilation thoroughly planned in advance! They show the hateful drive with which the Supreme Lady of all ladies was ousted from the perceivable reality by those evil forgers and shameful doers using all means at their disposal, and subsequently was massively passed over—and, cynically, worshipped with pious reverence as the pure, well-behaved, and holy, possibly also as the submissive and fraught with naivety Virgin Mary! But what overall portrait did this presentation imply in public perception: sexuality somehow never happened, sensuality somehow lacks sense and is best sent, with the sinful flesh, to the flames of hell, and all lust somehow is the devil's insinuation!

It is at this point in particular that that situation deserves closer observation which has brought about tremendous effects to this day: Then, Jesus had a mother (Mary) on Earth and a father (God) in the heavens! With far-reaching consequences! From the story with the side or rib* via the original sin in Eden, then Mary's pregnancy in a virgin to the status of women today in the Catholic Church and in society in general, a clenched affront by white men to the Divine Mother and mistress of the female polarity pervades—as though a common thread that, were it red, would be a trail of blood! For to this day this is why men have been above women, or else throughout the ages women have never been on equal footing with men because of this! And through to the lowest classes of society, there are men who hold the firm conviction that they are superior to women, or control them—if need be, using all means of bodily superiority. And especially in that Church in which the event of the inception of Jesus has been wrapped in such an absurd picture of virgin birth, they continue to practise the off-putting negation of the Mother and of women in general still today without scruples and with detachment. And if this weren't enough and to make matters worse, even today women live in society exposed to discrimination and harassment and the feeling of blameworthiness—co-caused to the extreme by woman haters encaped in cowls!

(* see the "Early Humiliation" section on this)

* (Gen 2, 22) Then the LORD God made a woman from the part he had taken out of the man.

 (Luk 1, 34 - 35) Mary said to the angel, "How will this be, since I have not been intimate with a man?" The angel replied, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore the child to be born will be holy; he will be called the Son of God.

Forever Young Love

Jesus Himself might say: Yes, the Mother is alive! But who would believe Him? How can this absurd, abominable and cruelly stupid hex along the lines of rib, serpent Eve, an virgin birth finally be kicked out of the minds of humans? Made-up stories that to this day probably (have) served the exclusive purpose of oppressing and subjugating humankind using a withdrawn without parallel, impressed-on, and guilt-laden, Mother-hostile world view—almost as though a curse! And, above all, even today a feeling is conveyed to many women by this that they will never really be adequate! To this day, because of this evil and dishonoured portrayal, women, the entire female facet of Creation have not been able to take their rightful place in all societies on Earth. And this does not mean some successful women who are conforming anyway and act with the success of men. This is about women in general—and about participating in and shaping all areas in all societies of all countries on Earth!

The New World Order!

Out of this, neither women's quotas nor other equal opportunity instruments will change something that came about and has stayed for what feels like eternity, wreaked subsequent to this Mother disaster provoked by the higher elites of faith and worldly rule! For this is about an emotional issue, viz. about what of it has been impressed in the emotional body; and this cannot be resolved or re-interpreted by an explanatory approach purely of mind or reason. Feelings must be stirred until the reputation and the esteem of the true Goddess will have been restored, She will have retaken her ancestral place and will thenceforth sit enthroned alongside God in the splendour of the golden light.

* (All quotations were taken, in the German original, from the Stuttgarter Erklärungsbibel (Stuttgart Explained Bible), 1984 edition; for the English translation, the New English Translation (NET) of 2005 was used for the actual Bible text, while explanations were translated from the Stuttgart Bible original and matched as far as possible to similar or identical explanations in the NET. The quoted, apocryphal Jesus Sirach verses are quoted from the World English Bible of 2020, where they are verses 23, 24 of Sir 25. Also, in rare cases, the NET text was slightly altered, to fit the German Stuttgart Bible text better, which itself uses the modernised, standard version of the translation by Martin Luther, when choices of expression in the NET based on revisiting the original Hebrew or Greek text in a 21st century approach would not fit well into the developments the work presented here bases on these very expressions in the German text.)

All rights reserved by and with the author.